

TASTES OF DANUBE – BREAD, WINE AND HERBS

- On October 16th on world's day of food and bread, National foundation for human ageing dr Laza Lazarevic organized in cooperation with Institute for Study of cultural development presentation of our project.
- Speakers on our meeting were:

Marina Lukic Cvetic – acting director of Institute for study of cultural development

Dejan Zagorac – researcher in Institute for Study of cultural development

Simeon Babic – director of National foundation for human ageing

Lidija Jevremovic – expert associate in National foundation for human ageing

Mr Zoran Radivojevic – coordinator for Vrsac and Gudurica

Mr Miroslav Tasic

Mr Slavoljub Tasic – Institute for Medicinal Plants research dr Josif Pancic

Media reports:

- October 16th - Radio Belgrade – Marina Lukic Cvetic and Lidija Jevremovic spoke about project in morning programm
- October 16th – Kopernikus television – Marina Lukic Cvetic and Dejan Zagorac
- October 20th – tree televisions from Vrsac made report from our presentation
- National television made report about our project

Meeting in Gudurica – October 19th

- In Gudurica we had meeting with students from Elementary school “Mosa Pijade” who wrote poems and stories and made some paintings about bread, wine and grapes.
- Director of Vrsac vineyards also spoke about possibilities and problems that has wine owners in that area. After that we taste wines in his celery.

DANET BOARD MEETING – December 2016

- International group of Danube-Networkers went to Jeremia to visit the very interesting and significant Museum of Bread in Pecinci. The painter Jeremias and his wife gave the delegation a warm welcome to, and a highly informative conversation took place.

Museum Pecinci

December 2016 – Vuk's endowment

- Very significant meeting with potential partners on project with international group

Saint Trifun – February 13th

- In Agricultural school were organized round table about wineries and wine experts spoke about their perspective and possibilities for cooperation, students wrote poems and stories about wine, reading sayings and proverbs and also made paintings about wine.

National television made report from celebration of Saint Trifun, keeper of vineyards in Gudurica and Vrsac

- Tree televisions and one radio followed visit of Ministry of agriculture of Baden-Wirttemberg, Mr Kurt Mezger, and German- Romanian group who were in Agricultural school in Vrsac in April 2016 where we had presentation and workshop of our project

Minister Mr Kurt Metzger with project partners and representatives of Vrsac

Meeting in Vrsac – April

Meeting in Gudurica – April

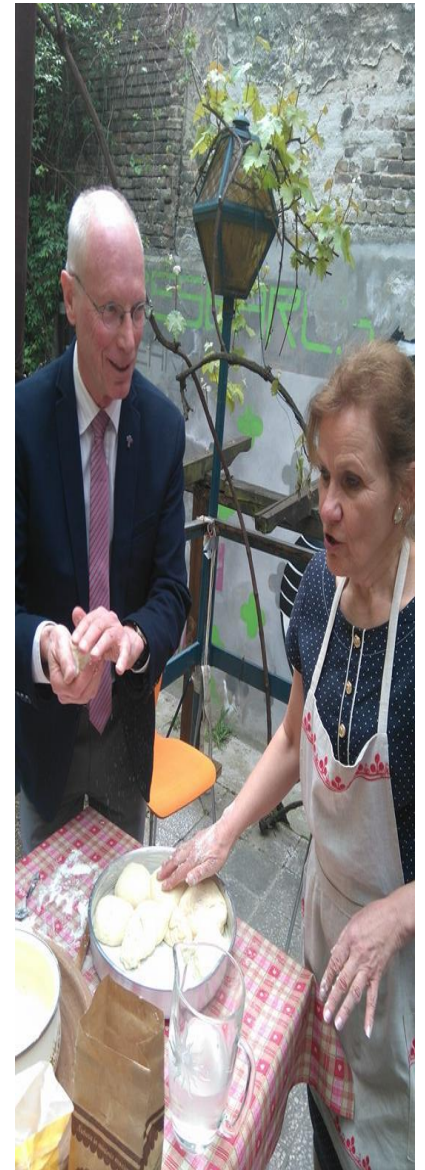

With director of Elementary school

Workshop – Making bread of friendship

Project presentation in Serbian Embassy in Budapest

- Marina Lukic Cvetic and Dejan Zagorac from Institute for cultural heritage present book Tastes of Djerdap

Serbian Embassy in Hungary

